Unemployment In Ohio Seen On Decline

State's Idle Rate Down to 9.3 Pct.
BUC Survey Reveals

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — The Division of Research and Statistics of the Bureau of Unemployment Compensation today gave this view of Ohio's employment prospects:

"If normal seasonal pattern prevails, employment should be moving upward and unemployment, downward. The volume in regular claimants (for unemployment benefits) should pick up rapidly, in view of a $6.6 billion backlog in Ohio for proposed engineering construction."

The bureau's report today said that unemployment in Ohio is still high, but dropping. It dropped about 20,000 from February, to a total of 367,000 in March. The Ohio rate moved down from 9.8 per cent to 9.3 per cent. The Ohio labor force, estimated for March at 3,937,000, represents around 5.5 per cent of the national total.

Other conclusions pointed up in the survey:

Those out of work one week or longer, claiming benefits under Ohio unemployment compensation law, numbered 199,000 in the week ending April 15. The volume has been tapering off for five successive weeks.

In the week ended April 15—the first in which those who have exhausted benefits could file for the temporary extended benefits law, $3,000 field initial claims.

More unemployment of longer duration, and somewhat larger checks per week have jumped costs to the unemployment compensation fund to more than twice the year-ago figure. Benefit outlay under the law amounted to $110 million in the first quarter of 1961, up 132 per cent over the first quarter of 1960.

In Washington, the Kennedy administration is planning additional aid for the economy even though some government experts now expect business to regain its pre-recession peak by early summer.

The new moves will be designed to help ensure a solid recovery and a broader attack on the persistent unemployment problem. They will grow out of a full-scale economic review now being directed by Dr. Walter Heller, chairman of President Kennedy's Council of Economic Advisors.

Kennedy told his Friday news conference that the results will be made public soon.

There is a widespread feeling among the officials involved that further steps will be required if the administration's economic goals are to be achieved. Although most agree that the recession reached a basic turning point last month, they are fearful of the upturn might run out of steam unless given an additional boost.

The recovery after the 1958 recession was quite sharp at the start but, in the view of most experts, ended prematurely.

Secretary of the Treasury Douglas Dillon told a news conference Monday that a definite attack must be mounted against structural unemployment — joblessness caused by automation and the steady decline in such industries as coal mining.

Libel Suit Tied To Fairfield Poll

HAMILTON, Ohio (AP)—Voters in nearby Fairfield balloted in a charter election today, one day after the Charter Commission sued a community newspaper, the Fairfield Sentinel, for $100,000.

The suit, filed Monday in Common Pleas Court, contended 10 commission members suffered damage to reputation by an article in the Sentinel April 16 and 23.

James F. Sears of Hamilton and Juanita Odson of Fairfield, named defendants as publishers of the newspaper, did not comment on the suit.

The article, according to the suit, asserted the commission defied the state code and misused public funds to print a brochure about a proposed charter.

New Editor Named

Paul Smallwood today was named Editor of The Herald by Paul F. Rodenfels, publisher. He replaces Robert Harrod who resigned recently.

Smallwood is a native of Circleville, having graduated from high school in 1948. He graduated from Ohio University, Athens in 1952 and served three years in the U. S. Army as an infantry unit commander.

The new editor served 13 months in Korea and was discharged from service in 1955 as a 1st lieutenant.

He joined the Herald news staff in 1956 after finishing graduate studies at Ohio State University. He has served as sports editor plus many other beats common to reporterial work here.

At the same time Ronald Coffman was appointed to the news room staff. Coffman comes here from Washington C. H. He attended Miami University, Oxford, O.

Plans Call for Removal Of Walnut Wooden Bridge

The Pickaway County Board of Commissioners yesterday gave approval to County Engineer Henry T. McCrady to complete plans for a new bridge over Walnut Creek on County Road No. 31.

The plans are to be completed by August 1, by Elmer S. Barrett and Associates, Chillicothe.

A few weeks ago Engineer McCrady reduced the weight limit of the old wood-covered bridge to three tons, declaring it unsafe for vehicles in excess of that weight.

McCrady also was given approval to brace the present bridge at a cost of $4 to $5,000.

Education TV Proposal Eyed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's state senators turned their attention to television today, but all in line of duty.

They were considering a bill, scheduled for floor vote, that would set up a nine-member educational television commission. Members would serve without pay, and would establish a statewide TV network for instruction of Ohioans of all ages.

Through such a network, advocates say school children, young people in high school and college, adults both in the cities and on the farms, and relatively confined older persons could share in lectures, readings, demonstrations, films, and dramatic, musical and other offerings from a variety of sources.

The 1959 legislature set up a commission to study the possibilities of such a network. The bill considered today would let the commission decide whether transmission facilities should be leased or state-owned.

While the Senate was engaged with this and five other measures, the House had six bills on its floor vote agenda, too. Among them was a Senate-approved (37-0 March 28) bill modernizing Ohio's laws covering commercial transactions.

The bill is said by its backers to be part of a nationwide move to make commercial law uniform in all states. Two years ago, a similar bill got hung up in the Senate in the last minute rush—after having passed the House by a narrow margin—and died.

The House agreed Monday, 94-32, to a Senate amendment which would make the arrangement to divert $15 million more a year to local governments effective Jan. 1, 1962.

The next move in connection with the much-publicized bill is up to Democratic Gov. Michael V. DiSalle, and he is expected to veto it. However, leaders of the Republican majority in both houses of the legislature say they think they can find enough Democratic support to override the expected veto.

Gaullists Repulse Rebels At Naval Base in Algeria

U.S. Sees Laos Reds Gain in Truce

WASHINGTON (AP)—Top U.S. officials today saw a large gap in the Laos cease-fire plan which could let Communist-backed rebels spring another military offensive before the proposed 14-nation peace conference gets under way.

They emphasized that this hazard is one of many which will have to be surmounted in the long and uncertain struggle to get an effective international agreement for a neutral, independent Laos.

Britain and the Soviet Union, as co-chairmen of the 1954 Indochina settlement which created Laos, Monday issued their long-awaited peace proposal. They called for a cease-fire to be checked by a three-nation control commission, then a 14-nation parley on Laos' future to start in Geneva May 12.

The cease-fire gap showed in the text of the proposal as published Monday night. The plan set no specific date for a halt to the fighting, beyond saying it should stop before the Geneva parley begins.

U.S. authorities portrayed the Laotian government forces as ready to stop their shooting promptly. But they feared the rebels, backed by mounting Soviet-aided supplies, would open a final push to seize additional important parts of the small Southeast Asian kingdom — perhaps fighting right up to the eve of the conference.

The allies' diplomatic bargaining position already has suffered heavily from rebel advances in a drive that since December has captured large areas of Laos adjacent to Communist North Viet Nam and threatens to split the country at its narrow waist.

The State Department served notice that without a verified cease-fire, the United States will not go to the Geneva meeting.

Press officer Lincoln White underlined the military situation, stressing that the cease-fire is up to the rebels.

While voicing U.S. "satisfaction" with the British-Soviet plan, he denounced the rebels' weekend advance through strategic Vang Vieng as an 11th-hour offensive toward the capital of Vientiane.

The British-Soviet proposal said nothing about the Soviet arms airlift or U.S. aid to the Laotian government forces. U.S. strategists planned to keep American assistance flowing at least until there is a guaranteed halt to the outside Communist aid.

Southeast Asia Treaty Organization plans to step in as necessary to keep the Reds from swallowing up the country were said to be in readiness should the Communists try further major actions before or after the Geneva conference gets going.

U.S. officials saw a long uphill fight in their efforts to salvage Laos from unremitting Communist pressure.

Laos Accepts Call for Truce

Neutral Ex-Premier Also OKs Proposal

VIENTIANE, Laos (AP)—The government today formally accepted a joint British-Soviet call for a cease-fire in Laos. A spokesman expressed hope fighting could end by noon Wednesday.

Shortly thereafter, Peiping radio said Prince Souvanna Phouma backed by the Communist bloc as the legal ruler of the Asian kingdom, "welcomed" the cease-fire proposal. It did not elaborate.

The broadcast said the neutralist ex-premier, stooping over in Communist North Viet Nam after a visit to Moscow and Peiping, called for a peace meeting of all factions Saturday.

The site proposed was Xieng Khouang, stronghold of the pro-Communist Pathet Lao on Laos' central Plaine des Jarres.

A British spokesman in London said he understood the Soviet government "is taking action as far as the Pathet Lao is concerned."

Britain and the Soviet Union were sending out invitations for a 14-nation conference to work out arrangements for a neutral, independent Laos. The invitations said the conference would open May 12 in Geneva.

The Laotian government announced its commander in chief is "ready to establish contact at any moment with the responsible head of the opposing forces" to fix the "day and hour of an effective cease-fire."

The three-nation control commission—India, Canada and Poland—which will supervise the truce, is scheduled to hold its first meeting in New Delhi, India, on Friday. The United States has served notice that it will not attend the Geneva conference until a truce is in effect and has been verified.

The flurry of peace moves came as the royal government was airlifting soldiers to the northern front to meet the threat of Pathet Lao troops who over the weekend drove government forces from Vang Vieng, until then a key government military headquarters 70 miles north of Vientiane, the administrative capital.

Mutineers Suffer First Big Setback

PARIS (AP) — Forces loyal to President Charles de Gaulle repulsed an attempt by mutinous paratroopers to seize a naval base near the rebel stronghold at Oran today in the first big setback to militant insurrection in Algeria.

The French president recalled French tanks and soldiers from NATO duty in West Germany, called up more reservists and imposed a tight economic blockade on the vast North African territory.

Units of the French fleet left the big naval base at Toulon, apparently headed toward Algeria. Several destroyer and destroyer escorts weighed anchor.

In a show of confidence, De Gaulle sent a message to the National Assembly as it reconvened declaring it should carry on as usual despite his assumption of full powers to deal with the insurrection.

Premier Michel Debre in a speech to the Assembly warned the leaders of the Algiers military junta that they were heading the nation toward bloodshed and civil war. He referred to this morning's attack near Oran, when junta paratroopers tried to capture the big French naval base of Mers-el-Kebir, just outside Oran. They fell back under warning (Continued on Page 2)

Space Capsule Test Firing Is Failure

CAPE CANAVERAL Fla. (AP) — An attempt to hurl an unmanned Mercury space capsule into an orbit about the earth failed today when the Atlas booster rocket exploded in flight about 30 seconds after launch.

The 1½-ton capsule was pulled free by an escape mechanism and parachuted toward the Atlantic Ocean just off the Cape.

The Atlas was to have hurled the bell-shaped capsule into a single orbit 100 miles above the earth. An attempt was to have been made to recover it from orbit after it completed the 110-minute run around the globe.

The 77-foot Atlas with the capsule perched on its nose rose smoothly from its pad at 11:15 a.m. EST and appeared to be flying a true course.

But 30 seconds after lift-off the Atlas lurched violently in the sky and suddenly blew apart with a brilliant flash that left a huge fog of fire and smoke hanging in the sky several seconds.

The test was a crucial one in the program intended to put an American into space for a relatively short ride next week and achieve manned orbital flight perhaps late this year.

There was no immediate word here on what effect the failure would have on that schedule.

Trade Embargo On Cuba Studied

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
(The New York Times said today the Kennedy administration is considering application of a total embargo on United States trade with Cuba.)

(The question was taken up in the National Security Council Saturday as part of a search for a new policy on Cuba, but no decision was reached, a Washington dispatch to the Times added. The story noted that exports to Cuba already have been heavily curbed and now consist largely of foodstuffs and medicines.)

The White House issued a statement Monday night which said: "President Kennedy has stated from the beginning that as president he bears sole responsibility for the events of the past few days. He has stated it on all occasions and he restated it now so that it will be understood by all.

"The President is strongly opposed to anyone within or without the administration attempting to shift the responsibility."

There was no elaboration on the White House statement but it apparently was prompted by a remark by Secretary of the Interior Stewart L. Udall tying in former President Dwight D. Eisenhower with early planning of last week's rebel landings in Cuba.

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York and former President Harry Truman were to be filled in today on Kennedy's Cuban policy.

Kennedy invited the Republican governor to the White House for a mid-afternoon briefing on the invasion and the problems of combatting pro-Communist Fidel Castro's Cuban regime.

He assigned Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson to fly to Missouri for a similar talk with Truman.

Late last week Kennedy discussed the situation with Eisenhower, former Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Sen. Barry Goldwater, R-Ariz.

While the effect of these discussions may be to lay the groundwork for bipartisan support for any future moves by Kennedy against the Castro regime (Continued on Page 2)

Officials Say Blood Unit Pays Dividends Too

One other bank pays greater returns than any financial institution in Circleville, according to members of the local Blood Bank program.

It's the Pickaway County Red Cross Blood Bank. Program officials say you should be doing business with it every time it comes to his community. Its returns are fabulous!

The investment you make offers returns in the greatest dividend imaginable — human life, the local officials pointed out.

They urged area citizens to make a deposit Thursday at The First Methodist Church from 11 a. m. to 5 p. m. Make an appointment now at the local Red Cross Office or walk-in to the "Bank" Thursday, they reminded.

Cancer Drive Slated Tonight

Volunteers for the 1961 Cancer Crusade will conduct a door-to-door canvass tonight in the Circleville area.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith Wagner, co-chairmen of the campaign, said the drive will begin about 6 p. m.

They also reported that all volunteers will be wearing identification tags.

Volunteers also will distribute literature concerning the seven danger signals of cancer. All persons are urged by the society to study the pamphlets.

2 of 7 Dogs Flunk Cincy Police Course

CINCINNATI (AP)—Two police dogs—candidates for the Cincinnati Police Department's new canine corps—have flunked out.

The reason: Personality problems. Sgt. George McNair, patrol chief, said the other five dogs have made excellent progress but training test showed "Rebel" was over-aggressive and "Prince" too friendly.

News Parley Called Off

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy will skip his news conference this week because of a heavy schedule.

April Showers Play Havoc With Early Crop Planting

April showers may bring May flowers, but what about sweet corn, peas and other early farm vegetables.

Farmers in this area are becoming concerned with the siege of wet weather that has been swelling rivers and streams and making fields a mass of mud within the past few weeks.

According to David Orr of the local Winorr Canning Co., the extended winter has equally blocked his firm's planting season.

Orr said today that pea-planting has started in a couple of fields and they aren't as far behind as some people surmise.

"WE'RE only five days to a week behind on planting right now," Orr related, "and if we finish the planting scheduled for today, we'll have about 20 per cent of the crop planted", the cannery official said. However, heavy rain later today dashed this schedule.

Orr went on to explain that the factory plants its Spring crop by heat units, rather than by date. Heat units are arrived at by the temperature. He continued to say that according to the date they are considerably behind on planting, but according to heat units they are only lagging about five or six days.

Freezing temperatures, rain and snow have predominated throughout the usual early Spring days.

At the present time, rainfall for the month is .68 inches ahead of the normal for the month, 2.86 inches. The rain gauge shows a total of .31 inches ahead for the year.

Mercury reached its high of the year late yesterday afternoon stopping at the 80 mark. A low of 61 was recorded at the local weather bureau.

The outlook for today and tomorrow calls for more showers and scattered thundershowers and a little cooler.

U. S. WEATHER officials predict more cool weather in the weeks to come. But there is one consolation — time marches on and sooner or later summer heat will be here.

April 1960 suffered a deficit of 1.30 inches of rainfall and May of the same year finished with 1.79 inches ahead. Nearly six inches of rain fell in the county during May last year.

If this situation repeats, Pickaway County will have plenty of May flowers, but will have to cross early corn-on-the-cob and fresh peas off diets until later than June or the first of July.

gime, informants said this was to the Presidents purpose.
The briefings were described as an exchange of views on what has happened.
With his statement reaffirming his responsibility, Kennedy sought to stamp out any party row over the Cuban invasion and its fallure.

The statement came after Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois protested a remark by Udall that the invasion had been conceived during the Eisenhower administration.
Another high Kennedy official said that while the plan had been drawn up while Eisenhower was in office, Kennedy had ample opportunity to review it and choose alternatives before giving the go-ahead.

In more backwash of the Cuban invasion, the U.S. intelligence system drew more criticism.

An administration official said the Central Intelligence Agency not only grossly underestimated the Castro military force and power to prevent an uprising, but also gave no advance warning on the French army insurrection in Algeria.

Retail Group Eyes Projects

Members of the Circleville Retail Merchants Committee discussed a tentative "Circleville Appreciation Day" in an initial meeting last night at the BPO Elks Home.

Members of the committee said no definite plans were made concerning the appreciation event. Merchants are to be contacted later.

In other business before the group, Eldred Parsons, president of the Circleville Chamber of Commerce, named Nat Lefko as chairman of the retail merchants unit. The committee is an organization within the Chamber.

Lefko, owner of Rothman's Department Store here, succeeds Hal Dickenson of Circleville Hardware who held the post in 1960.

PARSONS and Lefko today said several projects are being eyed by the committee for future development.

The Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors meets here the first Tuesday in each month. Members gather at the Court & Main Restaurant basement for noon luncheon and a business meeting which follows.

Thug's Case Studied

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—U.S. District Judge Mell G. Underwood has ordered a probation investigation for William E. Schoop, 35, of Granville, who has pleaded guilty to a charge of robbing the Hebrew Branch of the Park National Bank of Newark of $4,780 last Feb. 8.

Castro's TV Parades List Of Invaders

KEY WEST, Fla. (AP) — Invaders reportedly captured by Fidel Castro's troops demanded death, showed indifference or begged for mercy in a television show from Cuba today.

A priest, a man who claimed he won the U.S. Medal of Honor and a pre-Castro police corporal accused of brutalities were among the captives interrogated in a running propaganda series aimed at convincing the Cuban people that the United States engineered the ill-fated invasion.

The telecast, monitored in this Florida city, lasted more than four hours.

The prisoners, who indicated they were aware of the airing squad threat pronounced by Castro, agreed with interrogators that they were duped into thinking the Cuban people would join their cause.

A man who claimed to be Manuel Perez Garcia and claimed he killed 83 Japanese and won the Medal of Honor in World War II, jumped up and shouted, "If this nation loves Fidel Castro, let it shoot me."

In Washington, the Pentagon said Manuel Perez Garcia died in battle and received the Medal of Honor posthumously.

Segundo de las Heras Cabo, who said he is a Spanish-born priest who formerly served in Cuba and parachuted with the invaders, said he was sorry and "would like to make amends."

Bribery Trial Against Dover Mayor Opens

CLEVELAND (AP) — The defense told a Tuscarawas County jury Monday that gambling flourished in Dover in 1958 and 1959 and for many years before, but that Mayor Clifford C. Froelich neither condoned it nor accepted bribes to allow it to continue unhampered.

Russell Bowers made the opening statement in the trial of Froelich, charged with seven counts of accepting bribes from gamblers.

In Judge John H. Lanneck's Common Pleas Court, Bowers also contended gambling had been commonplace in other Tuscarawas County cities, but that the county prosecutor's staff decided to pick on Dover. He said Froelich was tougher on gamblers than previous mayors.

The mayor, the state has charged, received about $1,500 from gamblers to allow them to maintain operations—even though they paid occasional fines.

The mayor collected money for worthy causes, Bowers said, anywhere he could get it—"even from gamblers."

Bowers noted that Froelich took money from George Markos 64, of Dover, Markos has been convicted of bribing Froelich.

"Markos gave money to Froelich for contributions," Bowers said. "The gamblers got no protection. The mayor was weak in many ways, and I would say stupid in many ways," he added.

James Patrick, former prosecutor who, with Prosecutor Harlan Spies, will attempt to show the mayor accepted bribes, made an opening statement which consisted of reading the indictment and a bill of particulars.

Deaths

MR. CHARLES G. BAKER

Mr. Charles Baker, 45, Jefferson Ave., Ashville, died Monday evening in Grant Hospital, Columbus.

Mr. Baker was born Oct. 2, 1915, in Ashville, the son of Charles and Stella Ward Baker.

He is survived by his wife, Billie and two sons, Larry, Athens, and Jimmy, Canal Winchester.

Other survivors are one brother, Arthur, Lockbourne, nieces and nephews.

shots from a cruiser in the harbor.

The first shots fired since the uprising broke early Saturday emphasized that the navy status firmly with De Gaulle. At least some of the air force also was loyal. In addition to 11 planes which escaped to France Monay, six flew in today. Two others landed at Gibraltar.

But the quarrel of retired generals who seek to overthrow De Gaulle and reverse his Algerian peace policies held control of the main cities of Algeria with the vociferous support of much of the excitable European population.

French information minister Louis Terrenoire, claimed tourists of the army in Algiers is loyal to De Gaulle.

De Gaulle's government said it was still in contact with, and presumably held the allegiance of civil and military authorities of Tlemcen, Mostaganem and Saïda in western Algeria; Oranville in central Algeria, and Setif, Philippeville, Bama and Djidjelli in eastern Algeria.

Philippeville and Djidjelli are ports. The government was also said to control the port of Bougie, terminal for the pipeline carrying Sahara's oil from the desert to the coast.

Officials in Paris conceded that the situation in Bone, another port in eastern Algeria, was confused.

De Gaulle was bolstered by near-unanimous support of the population of France. People went about their jobs calmly for the most part. French housewives, remembering wartime shortages, stocked up on staples.

About 10,000 reservists have been called back to military service and the callup is continuing, the government said.

The number of troops brought back from the 50,000-man French force in West Germany was not disclosed.

Two nights ago Debre warned that the mutineers in North Africa might try to seize Paris or other centers in metropolitan France with a paratroop invasion. Citizens were called to the alert and told to rush into the streets if they heard sirens indicating an attack was under way.

The combat troops from Germany were sorely needed to bolster the power of the army at home, where most of the 250,000 troops are in training and service units.

Ex-Attorney Mixed in New Court Hassle

MARYSVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Jailed for contempt, disbarred attorney J. Harvey Crow of Urbana filed an appeal today with the Third District Court of Appeals in Lima.

He was sentenced to 10 days in jail Monday by Common Pleas Judge Gwynn Sanders after being found guilty of contempt of court for representing a client in a civil suit.

Crow wrote out his appeal and sent it to the district appeals court at Lima. There was no indication when he could expect action.

But Crow also faces a six-month jail term should the Ohio Supreme Court invoke a probation. In Columbus, John McMillan, Supreme Court clerk, said he would obtain a transcript of the common pleas court proceedings for study by the high court in considering action against Crow.

Crow was disbarred in 1956, reinstated in law practice the following year, then was found in contempt in 1958 by the Ohio Supreme Court, which ordered him to turn in his license or go to jail for six months. He was put on probation pending the discontinuance of his practice.

A civil suit was on trial in Judge Sanders' court here Monday and Crow was representing the defendant, Dr. Walter Burt of Millford Center. When the judge learned that Crow was acting as an attorney, he immediately sentenced him to 10 days in jail on the contempt charge. The jury was sent home and a mistrial declared.

Traffic Lights Off To Replace Motor

Circleville traffic lights were turned off again today from 8:30 a. m. to about 9:15 a. m. to replace a centrally located controller motor.

According to City Patrolman Dick Blaney, the motor was purchased "used" in 1928. Moral of the story is: "they don't make controller motors like they used to."

Ohio Wesleyan Faculty Joins In Call for Prexy's Ouster

DELAWARE, Ohio (AP) — The campus move to oust Ohio Wesleyan University president David A. Lockmiller has been given faculty support.

At their regular monthly meeting Monday night, more than 110 faculty members adopted a statement of their position in the Lockmiller squabble. They said he

Stock Mart Prices Show Fast Recovery

NEW YORK (AP) — The stock market recovered vigorously today from Monday's sharp selloff. Trading slackened early this afternoon.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks at noon was up 1.00 at 240.60 with industrials up 1.80, rails up .30 and utilities up .40. Key stocks recouped from fractions to more than a point of losses taken in Monday's decline, the sharpest in seven months. Some of the "growth" stocks which were clipped so badly in profit taking recouped 5 or 6 points.

American Photocopy recouped about 8 points of Monday's loss of 11.34. Polaroid recovered all but a point of its 74-point decline. American Machine & Foundry won back about 5 points of its 94 loss.

Zenith came back more than 5 points, Varian Associates and Foxboro about 3 apiece, GM about 2.

Steels, motors, oils, aircraft-missiles, drugs, building materials, electronics, most chemicals and tobacco were among the gainers. Airlines and rails showed scant change as the session wore on.

The Dow Jones industrial average at noon was up 6.56 at 679.22. Corporate bonds were irregularly lower. U.S. government bonds were firm.

Local Youths Held in Chilly

Robert G. Carey, 18, Route 1, Circleville pleaded guilty in Chillicothe Municipal Court Saturday to a charge of burglary in connection with a burglary at the Village Grill, Kingston, Thursday.

Carey was arrested by Ross County deputy sheriff. The officers recovered most of the loot which included cigarettes, packs of chewing gum and $27.50 in change. They said it was found at the Carey home.

Carey was bound over to the Ross County grand jury, and his bond set at $1,000. Arrested with Chillicothe Juvenile Court was a 16-year-old Circleville boy.

Kiwanis Club Hears Address By OSU Canadian Student

Les Thomas from Edmonton in the Canadian Province of Alberta helped the Circleville Kiwanis Club observe U. S. - Canada week here last night.

Thomas, an advanced agronomy student at Ohio State University, told Kiwanians many facts concerning Canada and especially his home Province of Alberta.

He described the Canadian government and its branches and the many changes now taking place in his country. He said Canada is slightly larger than the United States and that its borders enclose 10 provinces and two territories.

The speaker noted that Canada is in the midst of an "industrial revolution", with the output of finished products making a marked increase.

ACCORDING to Thomas, Canada has made sizable gains in population since the 1940's, but he pointed out that the country still has only about 18 million people. He said, like in the U. S., the Canadian trend has been toward urban living.

The OSU student listed wheat as the principle crop in Alberta, pointing out that Canada also has a wheat surplus problem similar to the one in the United States. He said the oil industry is another growing concern in Canada.

The speaker was brought here through the efforts of Dr. W. Lloyd Sprouse.

Other activity for the evening included the introduction of Robert Sweigert and Forrest Brown as new Kiwanians members. It was announced that Bosses Night will be observed May 15.

State Assembly Faces Another Veto by DiSalle

Eighteen Democrats supported the amendment Monday, while one Republican, Guy C. Hiner of Stark County, voted against it. It was offered on the floor of the Senate, and approved, last Wednesday at the time that body voted 24-13 in favor of the bill. The bill, a Republican platform measure, was passed by the House, 109-25, March 8.

The $15 million that would go to counties, cities, villages and townships for road work now is used to support the Ohio Highway Safety Department. The money comes from motor vehicle license fees and, without it, the state will have to support the safety department from funds raised by the last two cans of the gasoline tax.

The gas tax money has been used exclusively by the Ohio Highway Department which has waged a bitter battle against the bill to avoid giving it up.

The spotlight was on the House Monday as a result of the vote on the amendment and introduction of a resolution calling for an investigation. (This was the result of a letter about the Utilities Commission which Rep. Richard M. Christiansen, D - Richland, said was written by a utility company executive. But, in the meantime, the Senate was busy.)

Senators completed passage of a House-approved bill giving a witness called before a state agency the right to be accompanied by an attorney to protect his rights. However, the lawyer may not conduct cross-examination.

Sen. Fred L. Hoffman, R-Hamilton, offered an amendment to the Ohio constitution, setting up a further line of succession to the governor beyond the lieutenant governor and speaker of the House. After them would come secretary of state, attorney general, state auditor and state treasurer.

The 543rd and 544th bills of this session were introduced in the Senate. One would enlarge the state cosmetology board from three to five and broaden its powers, while the other prohibits issuing permits for thoroughbred horse racing to tracks less than a mile long.

In other actions Monday, the House:

Gave 96-30 approval to a bill requiring those who want to be write-in candidates to declare intent with the election board 75 days before the primary. The measure is designed to aid voting machine counties, which could plan the space to be allowed on machines for write-ins, does away with need for counting faceted write-ins ("Santa Claus," "Marilyn Monroe," et al) and prettily much leaves it to party committees to fill vacancies on the ballot that occur after the filing deadline.

Decided 123-0 to let localities make contracts for fire protection with other nearby local governments even if they are not in the same state.

Voted 125-2 to require election boards to recount ballots—if the board feels it must be done to determine correct results in a particular polling place—before the deadline for a candidate's calling for a recount at his own expense. Thus, if the board's recount changed the outcome, the winner-turned-loser would have time to request a full recount.

Phone Firm Chief Quoted As Counting on GOP Aid

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—It apparently is at least one man's opinion that the Republican legislative victory last November was a signal for "rejoicing in the future of the earnings of public utilities in Ohio."

The opinion is expressed in a letter written last Nov. 14, six days after the election. It bears the signature of George B. Quatman of Lima, reputed head of 16 telephone firms in the state.

The text was made public Monday in a resolution offered by Rep. Richard M. Christiansen, D-Richland, former county prosecutor. The revelation came only hours before the House Elections and Federal Relations Committee was scheduled to start hearings on bills to revise the whole utility rate base formula.

Christiansen wants the legislature to investigate the letter he says was written by Quatman to the head of a New York firm dealing in investments and securities. Quatman himself was not available for questions. He was reported in Florida.

Christiansen said the letter, according to the best available sources, is genuine. He asserted he has compared the handwriting signature with signatures on others of Quatman's letters.

Through his position of president of Telephone Services, Inc., Quatman represents independent telephone companies in Bucyrus, Waterville, Cortland, Lemoine, Lima, Mount Vernon, Defiance, Wauseon, Wooster, Ottawa, Paulding, Rockford, Shelby, Bellefontaine, Van Wert and Luckey.

A partial text of the letter, as quoted by Christiansen in the resolution, reads:

"The adverse conditions against public utilities through the Public Utilities Commission began in (former Gov.) Frank Lausche's second term. He appointed Robert Moulton, his personal friend, through the route of demotion from secretary of commerce, for the sole purpose of carrying out his will of attacking public utility rates for political purposes. Both Lausche and Moulton up to that time were personal friends of mine, but that made no difference in their attack, and from that day on they have used every known vehicle they could devise to carry on this attack.

"Harry Miller, now president of Columbus and Southern (Ohio) Electric Co. was a former member of the PUCO in the good old days. He was followed by the appointment of Ralph Winter, an attorney from Lodi, who was a Republican, anti-utilities. Moulton was succeeded by the appointment of this man (Edward J.) Kenealy, who was assistant law director of the city of Cleveland and had been fighting utility rates all his life. He is now completing his sixth year of his term, and, being a Democrat, he will naturally be re-appointed by a Democratic governor. We had expected relief with our Republican Gov. (C. William) Billy O'Neill. He gave us (Everett H.) Krueger who had the will to improve the situation, but not the ability, so if we were to follow the suggestion of a cautious attitude toward Ohio utilities, that should have been seven years ago; but during this time we have progressed very well as a matter of record."

"At the present time," the letter said, "it should be just the reverse. There is a new light of hope. The recent election gave us a Republican legislature in both houses which is a public repudiation of the policies of the Democratic administration (of Gov. Michael V. DiSalle)—anti-utility."

"The Republicans had no platform for changing Ohio's rate formula and therefore will not change it now. It is also a fore-runner of the end of this policy, meaning that DiSalle will not be re-elected two years from now and he will be succeeded by Jim (James A.) Rhodes, present Republican auditor of state. He is a friend of mine and a friend of the utilities."

Rhodes, given a chance to read the resolution, refused to become embroiled. To all questions, he replied: "No comment."

DiSalle, however, had something to say.

"This is better than any message I ever sent to the legislature ..."

"I'll be interested in what happens to the resolution. I would not be surprised that the PUCO might be interested on its own ..."

Soviet Paper Tells Route By Gagarin

MOSCOW (AP)—Yuri A. Gagarin took off on his historic flight into space from a point north of Iran and his space ship began braking for a landing while still far out over the South Atlantic. Izvestia, the government paper said today, it published a description and a photograph of what it said was the air force major's space flight.

It said the spaceship had three portholes with heatproof glass through which he could make visual observations, described two emergency escape hatches which could be used in case of necessity and said the astronaut traveled in a catapult chair which could be ejected if something went wrong.

The newspaper published a diagram of the flight. This showed Gagarin took off in an easterly direction from somewhere in the Soviet Union just north of Iran, traveled across Siberia, swung down over the Pacific and crossed South America.

According to the diagram, the braking apparatus was switched on over the South Atlantic and Gagarin then traveled over Africa and the Middle East, landing at a spot in the Soviet Union somewhat farther east than the blast-off area.

Although Gagarin told a news conference there were no cameras on board an official photograph released today showed a television camera, so labeled in Izvestia's caption.

MOBILITY ADDED—George Durney models International Latex' new addition to space suit fashions at a luncheon in Washington. It protects from radiation, temperature extremes, lack of oxygen pressure—but the significant feature is that the space-man is mobile. Getting this setup in shape cost $500,000 in company and USAF funds.

Passed, 121-4, a measure requiring two assistant clerks of the election board to take the ballots supervise their marking, and return them from disabled voters at public or private institutions, to discourage fraud.

All the measures go to the Senate.

The House also agreed to the sale of land in Columbiana County to the Salem Hunting Club Inc., and to Harry O. Rhodes Jr. of Salem, proceeds to be credited to the School Lands Trust Fund. Similar sales were approved for land in Harrison and Hocking counties.

Ashville Girl Scouts Guides For Exhibition

Members of Ashville Girl Scout troops No. 803 and 772—sixteen girls in all—will serve as guides and hostesses for the annual Trefoil Girl Scout Council's Program Fair Saturday from 11 a. m. to 8 p. m. in Veteran's Memorial, Columbus.

The exposition will feature displays of handicraft and outdoor activities of more than 200 scout troops, and will be highlighted by the performance of folk dances by 15 troops at various times during the day.

Also on the program will be a special appearance of Ann Grimes, TV folk singer, at 4:15 p. m.

Girl Scout camping procedures will be demonstrated by several troops who will present skits representing primitive camping, modern family camping and the basic requirements for camping expeditions.

IN conjunction with this, site committees from Ken Jockey and Morgan County camps will exhibit displays giving information about Ohio camp sites.

Short dramatizations are planned by six Columbus troops, with each one stressing a different aspect of first aid methods.

Advisers for the Ashville troops are Mrs. Thomas Rife (803) and Mrs. Joe Vause and Mrs. Willard Lipps (772).

Toledoan Held In Embezzlement

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—The FBI has arrested a branch manager of the United Savings & Loan Association on charges of embezzling $22,901.

Being held by federal authorities was Gerald Clement, 37, of 2465 Broadway, manager of the firm's Parkway Plaza branch in Maumee.

E. E. Hargett, special FBI agent in charge of the Northwestern Ohio District, said the embezzlement was discovered during a regular audit.

Hargett said the branch manager admitted spending most of the money on pleasure trips and two new automobiles.

During the era of piracy, Port Royal, Jamaica, was known as the wickedest city in the world.

"Daddy, What's a Pharmustist?"

That's pharmacist, son. Well, he's a lot of things. He owns the store where your Mother and I buy medicines.

Is he a doctor?

No, but he's sort of a doctor's right-hand man. The doctor finds out what's wrong when you're sick—

Like when I had the flu?

That's right—and he tells the pharmacist what medicine you should have to make you well again. The pharmacist very carefully prepares it for you and tells you when you should take it, how much to take at a time, as the doctor ordered.

Like Mom does with the candy?

Well, in a way, Mom uses a recipe to make candy. I guess you could say the doctor writes a "recipe"—it's called a prescription—that the pharmacist follows very, very carefully, because you have to take just the right amount of medicine. The doctor and the pharmacist both have to study a long time in college to learn all about the many illnesses—and about the medicines that will cure them.

I bought some 'hesive tape at his store once.

He sells that, too. And a lot of other things that help keep us from being very sick. We always ask his advice before we buy anything or take anything on our own—medicines for little cuts and burns, for colds, for upset stomachs.

What other things is he?

Well, let's see now. He's a businessman—just like me; he's a teacher because he helps other men learn pharmacy; and he's a Dad—just like me. He wants to help make this a good town to live in, to see it grow, to keep it healthy.

I think I'll be a pharmacist.

Pharmacist, son.

The World Today

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON (AP) — The finger points at the Central Intelligence Agency as a big factor in two American disasters within less than a year: The Cuban invasion and the U2 spy plane.

Bit by bit the CIA, most hush-hush of all government agencies and therefore the one about which the public knows the least, is being criticized. The result will be a good look at its operations.

President Kennedy took the initiative in this by appointing Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, former Army chief of staff, to head a study of intelligence and guerrilla warfare tactics.

Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon is reported to believe—and to have told Kennedy so—the Cuban disaster shows there should be a division of responsibility in the CIA.

This means separating its gathering of information — it's the American super-spy agency — from any part in carrying out the actions based on the information it collects.

Last May 1, just 15 days before President Eisenhower was to have had his summit meeting in Paris with Premier Khrushchev, the CIA sent the U2 spy plane over Russia where it was shot down.

The result: 1. American spying was revealed to the world at the worst possible time — when Eisenhower and Khrushchev were to meet in search of peaceful solutions.

2. The subsequent revelation that this was only the latest in a series of spy flights humiliated Khrushchev since the others had been successful.

3. The humiliated Khrushchev reacted as might have been predicted. He burst into international rage and indignation, called off the summit meeting, and insulted Eisenhower.

Although the U2 program in general had been approved by Eisenhower and Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, apparently the CIA did not consult with them about the timing of the specific flight that ran into trouble in that very delicate period.

It shouldn't have required much astuteness to figure out beforehand that if the plane was caught and brought down it would give the Russians enormous anti-American propaganda at the worst possible time—just before the summit.

As for Cuba—the CIA reportedly was up to its neck in the invasion.

Sen. Mike Mansfield of Montana, leader of the Senate Democrats, called Monday night for prompt and thorough overhaul of U.S. intelligence machinery.

Late Monday one of the high officials in the Kennedy administration acknowledged this country had helped to train and equip the Cuban exiles who hit the Cuban beaches last week.

He also admitted there was considerable miscalculation both by the Cuban underground and U. S. intelligence on two points:

1. Whether there would be extensive anti-Castro reaction inside Cuba when the landings were made. There wasn't.

2. The extent to which the Communists already had supplied Castro with arms. It turned out to be much greater than expected.

There have been various reports that the CIA helped in training the rebels and in providing overly optimistic appraisals on the degree of anti-Castro feeling in Cuba, a factor of real significance in deciding whether to invade.

The CIA is headed by Allen Dulles, brother of the late Secretary of State John Foster Dulles. When Kennedy took office and began replacing key men appointed by Eisenhower with men of his own choosing, he retained Dulles.

The same high official who admitted American intelligence on Cuba was off-base, said Monday the revolt of the retired French generals in Algeria was a surprise to both the French government in Paris and to us, too.

Our intelligence, he said, didn't alert us to this.

Swedes Cheer As 1628 Ship Is Raised

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—The broken superstructure of a 14,000-ton man-of-war which capsized on her maiden voyage three centuries ago emerged from the harbor yesterday. Thousands of Swedes cheered.

A salvage crew began raising the Wasa, once the flagship of Sweden's warrior King Gustavus Adolphus. The sunken hulk is cradled in a special net of nine-inch steel wires attached to pontoons.

The Wasa went down on Aug. 10, 1628, in full battle array, to the dismay of her designers. Through the centuries all attempts to raise her have failed.

Navy frogmen and divers spent more than 1,500 hours below surface working on the wreck, strengthening the hulk with bolts and braces.

A few minutes past 9 a.m. the first little black piece of wood became visible above the surface. By noon several ribs were visible and the outline of the 165-foot-long ship could easily be distinguished.

When the rails of the Wasa reach the surface in the next few days, pumps will be lowered into her hull. By the middle of May the vessel is expected to be floating again. Then she will be towed to a dock and converted into a museum.

ANTI-CASTRO—Cuba's entry in the "Miss Universe" pageant in 1958, Armida Perez (center) was one of 10,000 demonstrators in an anti-Castro rally in Miami, Fla. Her husband is serving a 30-year sentence in a Castro jail.

A Matter of Taste

TRENTON, Mo. (AP) — Mrs. Doyle Ricketts tried a new cake recipe and let her three-year-old daughter, Delyne, sample it.

The child took one bite and said the cake was good. Then she took a second bite and announced the cake was perfect. The mother beamed at such praise but a moment later noticed the child was not eating the cake.

"I thought the cake was perfect," she said to the child. "It is Mommy, but I don't like perfect cake."

Salem Blast Injures 10 Workmen

SALEM, Ohio (AP)—An explosion followed by a fire at the Columbiana Boiler Co. in Columbiana, eight miles east of here, injured at least 10 workmen yesterday.

Eight of the injured were taken to Salem City Hospital and two to Columbiana Hospital, but the extent of their injuries was not determined immediately.

Among those hospitalized were George Cannon, Stewart Orr and James Barrow, a vice president of the firm. Barrow was burned trying to extinguish the flaming clothing of an employee.

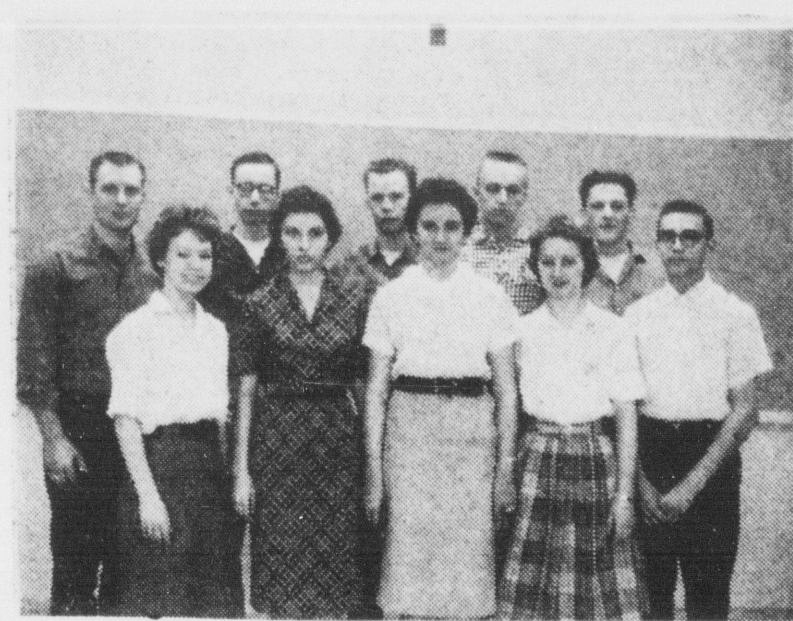

Columbiana Fire Chief Marcus Humm said a spark from an acetylene torch set off gas escaping from what was thought to be an empty tank.

Impact of the blast blew out a large window, ripped a hole in the roof and started a fire in the upper section of the building. Firemen quickly brought the blaze under control.

Witnesses said the ball of fire that followed the explosion set the clothes of some employees afire. Others had their hair and eyebrows singed.

A company official said all the workmen were accounted for. He could give no damage estimate or say when production would be resumed.

A company spokesman said the blast occurred in an area where high-pressure tanks scheduled for repair were stored. Normally the tanks contain gas used in refrigeration, he said.

Actress Chides Mothers For Urging Teen-Age Dates

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Do teenage girls really like to date?

Brigid Bazlen, who is one, offers the revolutionary thought that they don't.

"Most dating is a bore," says the black-haired beauty. "And I think girls would admit it if they weren't subject to pressures. Trouble is, most mothers think there is something wrong if their daughters don't keep dating."

"I date very little. It's all right if the boy is really interesting."

But this business of going out for an evening and making small talk with someone you scarcely know is a waste of time. Girls could spend their time much better at home with a good book.

Granted, it is an unusual viewpoint. But then, Brigid is an unusual teen-ager. For one thing, she wears hats. "I love hats," said the stylishly attired actress.

She gets her hats and her clothes-sense from her mother, Maggie Daly, the noted fashion commentator. Her ideas about dating and other matters are entirely her own. They reflect a maturity beyond her years (16).

So mature is she that she was able to play the Biblical temptress Salome in the forthcoming "King of Kings." It was her first film role and won her a contract at MGM, where she is now starring in "The Honey Moon Machine."

Brigid has come a long way in her 16 years. It was perhaps symbolic that she ordered the Elizabeth Taylor salad as we lunched in the MGM commissary. She resembles the legendary Liz in her precocious beauty.

The Bazlen career started with her playing, of all things, "The Blue Fairy," on a children's TV show in Chicago. That brought her much notice and a role in a brief TV series, "Too Young to Go Steady."

One day when she was visiting New York, her agent took her to see producer Samuel Bronston. After a few minutes' conversation, he asked her, "Do you have a passport?" Within six days she was on her way to Spain to play Salome.

Girl Scouts To Give Roses To County

The Ohio Trefoil Girl Scout Council will present three Girl Scout rose bushes to Pickaway County at 4 p. m. Thursday on the steps of the Pickaway Courthouse.

The Council, of which Pickaway County is a part, will in this way express appreciation to the community for the support given to the Girl Scout movement through the years. It is also a part of the activities of the "Birthday Years" in which girl scouts in the United States will help in beautifying the country in celebration of 50 years of scouting here.

The presentation will be made by Mrs. Sterling Poling, editor of the "Springboard", the monthly newsmagazine of the Ohio Trefoil Council. The roses will be received by Commissioners Charles Morris, Mayor Ben Gordon and William Cook of the Pickaway County Agriculture Society for planting a flower bed at the Fairgrounds.

There will be singing by Girl Scout groups. All Girl Scouts and the public are invited.

Speed Needed In Enacting New Ag Plans

WASHINGTON (AP) — Secretary of Agriculture Orville L. Freeman told Congress today that speed in enacting the Kennedy administration's farm legislation is needed to help the national economy grow healthy again.

Full employment in town is not to be expected until the farmers are better off, he said.

"Nothing has impressed me more during my three months in office than the extent to which the nonfarm public is unaware of the critically low level of farm income," Freeman said.

"There is not an industry or a person in the United States who is not touched in some way by what happens in agriculture. Agriculture is a big market for industrial items. But Agriculture hasn't grown in recent years and we all know that there is distressing unemployment in our key centers of automobile industry."

The Cabinet officer made those points in a statement prepared for the opening of House Agriculture Committee hearings on the administration's farm program.

This program would set up machinery under which producers of individual commodities could form programs to control supplies to improve and stabilize their incomes and halt accumulation of farm surpluses.

It also would extend and enlarge the food-for-peace program, broaden and liberalize government credit for low-income and distressed farmers and give farmer cooperatives more leeway in working together to improve rural conditions.

THAT HIGH WIRE FENCE runs 17 miles around the U.S. Naval Base (shaded area on map) at Guantanamo on the southeastern tip of Cuba. It is the only physical separation between the more than 3,000 U.S. Navy and Marine personnel on hand and the rest of the island, on which a new revolution is underway. All hands sitting tight.

DETROIT — American Motors' new Rambler American convertible is now being introduced at Yates Motor Co., Local Rambler Dealer.

The new Custom two-door model, the industry's lowest-priced convertible, carries a suggested advertised delivered price of $2,369, which is $478 to $598 below the lowest-priced convertibles of Ford, Chevrolet and Plymouth, according to Roy Abernethy, executive vice-president of American Motors.

Built on a 100-inch wheelbase, the sporty Rambler American convertible is only 173.1 inches long and 70 inches wide.

Its six-cylinder overhead-valve engine has a rating of 125 horsepower. Regular-grade gasoline is recommended.

The convertible has an electric-hydraulic powered top in black or white fabric coated with vinyl for long life. The top folds down into a deep well to provide an unbroken body line.

A unique feature of the American convertible is the use of plastic garnish moldings along the tops of the doors. Plastic retains much less heat than metal so the drivers and passengers will find it more comfortable to rest their arms on the window sills in the summer, Abernethy said.

A total of 27 interior trim combinations are available, including nine colors of solid pleated vinyl designed especially for the convertible. The other 18 combinations include fabric with vinyl trims and porous "breathable" vinyl.

The convertible is built with AM's all-welded single-unit construction for added strength and freedom from squeaks and rattles. Special supporting structures are incorporated in the convertible's underbody to give this model the structural strength of a sedan, Abernethy said. Like all Ramblers, the convertible body is dipped in a rust-preventing primer before the finish super enamel is applied.

The convertible also has AM's exclusive ceramic-coated muffler and tailpipe system, guaranteed to the original owner for the life of the car.

Scarfs Are Important In Seasonal Fashions

By ELEANOR ROSS
What a beautiful and ideal season this is for scarfs — silk scarfs that are soft and elegant and dramatic coloring!

Dresses and jackets designed without collars literally cry out for bright scarfs to fill in their necklines.

But we don't just tie a length of silk or chiffon about the neck and call it a scarf.

No, indeed! We drape it circlet-fashion, or it is folded like a triangle, knotted Boy-Scout fashion

Rainbow Girls Hold Annual Inspection

Several Circleville girls attended the Chillicothe Assembly 69, of the Rainbow for Girls annual inspection Thursday, at the Eastern Star Temple, Chillicothe. There were 103 Rainbow Girls and 20 guests present.

Inspecting Officers were Mrs. Lucille Recobs, Deputy of District 16 and Miss Rebecca Pinto, Grand Lecturer of District 16.

Miss Diane Rook, Worthy Advisor, presided at the meeting. She was assisted by Mrs. Stanley Rook, Mother Advisor.

Distinguished members of the Masonic Lodge, Order of the Eastern Star, DeMolay, and Order of the Rainbow for Girls were introduced. Visiting members were from Lucasville, Ky.

The decorations in the Assembly Room were bird cages filled with spring flowers hanging about, and several vases of flowers.

Initiatory work was performed on Kathy Pittinger, Chillicothe. She was then given the "Rose Ceremony" by Judy Gump, assisted by Gilda Barnett, Peggy Buskirk and Sandra Ankrom, accompanied by Judy Young, sang "Wonderful Mother of Mine" and Kathy was presented a red rose.

A short business meeting followed and the Assembly received an "excellent" rating on its work.

Following the meeting refreshments were served in the Banquet Room.

Those attending from Circleville were: Betsy Barnhart, Diane Burton, Marilyn Clifton, Karen L. Dennis, Robin Harbutt, Judy Lawson, Stephanie Marion and Pam Sweeney.

Officers will be elected at the next meeting May 4.

PHYL'S MEATBALLS AND ONIONS
2 thin slices bread (crusts off)
2 tablespoons water
1 egg
1 tablespoon instant onion
1 pound chuck beef (ground once)
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
2 tablespoons flour
Bacon fat

1 very large onion (cut thin and separated into rings)
Crumbs bread into mixing bowl; add water and mix with fork. Add egg and beat with fork to mix yolk and white. Add onion, beef, salt and pepper; mix well so bread crumbs combine with meat. Shape into 20 balls and roll in flour. Grease hot 10-inch heavy skillet with bacon fat; add meatballs and brown slowly on all sides. Push meat balls around edge of skillet; add onion rings to center; continue cooking over low heat; stirring onions often, until they are golden brown and meatballs are cooked through. Add a little bacon fat to onions if necessary while cooking. Makes 4 servings.

Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

Put It on the Line, Dearie!

DEAR ABBY: We recently purchased a clothes dryer and now the young doll across the hall keeps trapping my husband into bringing her "things" in after she's used our dryer. Am I wrong in thinking it is too personal a chore for my husband to be sorting and folding her "unmentionables"? I still don't know how to operate the dryer, or I would do it.

SOMEBODY'S WIFE
DEAR WIFE: Inform the "doll" across the hall that if she wants to use your dryer, she should operate it herself and sort and fold her own "unmentionables." This is no job for your husband.

DEAR ABBY: Please don't laugh at me. I am 20 years old, a Junior in college, and am considered a good-looking guy with a gift for making interesting conversation with girls on a variety of topics.

The trouble is, when it comes time to say good-night to a girl, I stutter, mumble and my shyness comes out.

I have gone with many good-looking girls who have come right out and asked me to kiss them good-night. I still can't. I don't think there is anything evil about kissing a girl, but I can't bring myself to do it. Am I normal?

DEAD EARNEST
DEAR DEAD: People who wonder whether they are "normal," usually are. If you find yourself "stuttering and mumbling" and unable to kiss a girl, don't let it worry you. You haven't "wanted to" badly enough yet.

DEAR ABBY: I am in love with my best friend's husband. I live near them and spend a lot of time at their house. I don't know how it happened, but we fell in love and I couldn't help myself.

I really like his wife and she likes me. When I visit her in the afternoon, I leave before her husband comes home because I can't

Ohio Youths To Legislate

State Capitol Slated For Mock Assembly

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Months of serious study and preparation in practical government in high schools throughout Ohio will culminate when representative Ohio youths take over the state Capitol for their 10th annual model Legislature next weekend.

For three days, the young legislators will go through all the procedures followed by the Ohio Legislature in passing the state's laws—except that bills passed by the students will not become actual law.

Or at least they will not become law unless the real Legislature follows suit and passes on them also—as it has done several times in the past.

The model Legislature is part of the YMCA-sponsored Youth in Government program. Members of Hi-Y (boys) and Tri Hi-Y (girls) Clubs throughout Ohio participate in the program each spring in Columbus.

The program of legislative training is so realistic in its preparation and enactment that members of the Ohio Legislature often have requested printed brochures of bills drafted by the high school age legislators and the action taken on each one.

Examples of bills that first appeared in the model Legislature and later became law are laws requiring removal of locks from discarded refrigerators and painting white lines on the outside edges of certain types of highways.

The Youth in Government program was begun in Ohio in 1952 to provide young men and women the opportunity to better understand the moral and political leadership requirements of government in Ohio.

Some of the representatives to the first model legislatures are now working in the lower echelons of state and municipal government but many of them would still be too young to have been elected to office.

Appeals Judges

Hear Presser Case

CINCINNATI (AP)—Three judges of the U. S. Court of Appeals, Sixth Circuit, Monday heard arguments in the appeal of William Presser, president of the Ohio Conference of Teamsters, from his conviction on a charge of obstructing the work of the U. S. Senate Rackets Committee.

Presser was convicted in U. S. District Court in Cleveland last June and sentenced to eight months in prison.

At the trial, Presser was accused of having torn and erased an invoice from a jewelry firm which listed names of eight persons who were to receive $100 champagne buckets from the Teamsters Union as 1955 Christmas gifts. The eight included high ranking Teamster Union officials and public officials.

CIRCLEVILLE HARDWARE CO.

An early Curtiss amphibian in flight. From such frail, small craft as this grew the United States Navy's huge, powerful air arm.

Naval Aviation Celebrates 50th Anniversary in 1961

by FLORENCE MICHELSON
Written Especially for Central Press and This Newspaper

From Maine to Florida and New York to California, Naval Aviation celebrates its 50th anniversary this entire year. A look backward will portray the astounding advances of the Navy's flight facilities graphically.

In 1911, Wright Brothers' planes and those of Glenn Curtiss resembled huge bamboo box kites and traveled approximately only 45 miles per hour. However, the Navy's interest was aroused. Planes would make more efficient look - outs than a ship's crow's nest, they could be helpful in rescuing ship survivors, perhaps invaluable, too, in locating enemy submarines.

Curtiss had interested Capt. Washington Irving Chambers USN, in the Curtiss plane. His civilian ace, Eugene Ely, flew a biplane from a specially built platform, once on the U. S. cruiser Birmingham, again on the U. S. battleship Pennsylvania's stern.

However, Navy Secretary George von L. Meyer objected to the curtailment of ship space for a plane's use. He told Curtiss, "When you show me that it is feasible for an aeroplane to alight on the water alongside a battleship and be hoisted aboard without any false deck to receive it, I shall believe the aeroplane of practical value to the Navy."

Curtiss' response was the creation of his hydroplane, substituting pontoons for wheels. He flew it, early in 1911, landing alongside the Pennsylvania at San Diego, Calif., was crane-hoisted to deck, and later made a take - off from the water.

The Navy was convinced. The service purchased a Curtiss A-1 in May, 1911, for $5,500. Lt. T. G. Elyson became naval aviator No. 1 and received training at the Curtiss aviation camp on North Island, Aviators No. 2 and 3 were Lt. John Rodgers and Lt. John H. Toers.

When the Navy had 15 pilots and 11 planes, the first Naval Flight School was established in 1914 at Pensacola, Fla. That year Lt. P. N. L. Bellinger's plane at Vera Cruz had the doubtful historical honor of receiving the first combat - inflicted damage from enemy bullets.

The Navy's aeronautical contingent was the first U. S. force to arrive in Europe in 1917. When World War I ended, the Navy had 2,107 planes as compared to 54 when the conflict began.

This war had demonstrated conclusively the value of planes. Attention focused on larger flying boats. A high point in aviation history was the successful Atlantic crossing in 1919 of the Curtiss NC 4 under Lt. Cmdr. Richard E. Byrd and Lt. Cmdr. A. C. Read.

During these 50 years, naval aviators have broken many records for distance, speed, altitude and endurance. The first flight over the North Pole was made in 1926 by Lt. Cmdr. Richard E. Byrd and pilot Floyd Bennett.

In 1921 Congress established a Bureau of Aeronautics with Rear Adm. William A. Moffett as its first chief. In 1926 the post of assistant secretary of the Navy for Air was created with Edward P. Warner in that office. David S. Ingalls the only flying World War I naval ace, was assistant secretary later.

By 1922, the Navy felt differently regarding ship decks for planes. The coal barge, Jupiter, was converted into the first aircraft carrier, renamed USS Langley.

A few years later two big ships, the Saratoga and Lexington, became carriers. During World War II, aircraft carriers attained a position of tremendous importance. In the 1950s, experiments began with angled decks and other features.

In less than a lifetime, naval aviation has progressed from a single box kite - like Curtiss plane to thousands of flying attack bombers, fighters, scouts, patrols, utilities, trainers, blimps, helicopters and jets. Once naval aviators flew a risky 45 miles per hour; now they travel at speeds nearly doubling that of sound.

During this anniversary celebration, America will have opportunities to hear the Navigator Choir witness parachute teams in action, watch golden winged naval pilots in the sky, see static displays at Chicago's Science and Industry Museum and elsewhere, attend many open houses or naval balls, also see the world - famous "Blue Angels" perform with spectacular, split - second precision in super-sonic F1H-1 Grumman Tigers.

Thrilling as all this might be to spectators, the celebration also is a reminder that the United States has a naval air force determined to be the world's best "for the maintenance of peace and for victory in war."

Myers points out that basketball on school nights has been trimmed in Ohio as a result of state board urging, but adds there have been no suggestions that the total number of games be trimmed.

Invitations to high school bands to play in far away places "seem exciting and desirable," he says, "but this is not education. . . . Until we discipline ourselves to distinguish between learning and fun, we will continue to send good teachers, in expensive buildings, children who are too tired and distracted to benefit."

Parisian Jew Recalls Horror

Eichmann Trial Hears
Of Nazi Barbarism

JERUSALEM (AP) — A wispy, bearded little man wearing a black skullcap recounted a Nazi nightmare today and testified in the trial of Adolf Eichmann. "It was the first time I ever saw the wild barbarism of the Germans."

The witness was Zinder Grynspan, father of a Jewish boy who killed a Nazi official in Paris in 1938.

What the Nazis called "the crystal night" followed the assassination, by Hershel Grynspan, 17, of Ernst Vom Rath, Nazi counselor of the German embassy in Paris. In the widespread outbursts synagogues were burned, Jewish homes and shops were broken into and some Jews were killed.

The elder Grynspan was a thin frail little figure of 75 as he testified in Yiddish.

Even after 23 years his voice shrilled and he trembled as he recounted the events of the night of Oct. 27, 1938, in Hannover, Germany.

"About 8 o'clock at night," he said, "a policeman came to our home. He told us we were all to come with him, that we should take our passports but nothing else."

"He took us to a concert hall. There were about 600 people already there. They kept us for 25 hours until Friday night."

"The next day—on the Sabbath—they took us to the railway station. The streets were back with people shouting 'Jews out to Palestine' and 'sion, sion,' apparently a reference to the signatures exacted of the Jews on their own deportation warrants."

Grynspan said they were taken by train to a point near the Polish border. Trains were arriving from many other points in Germany, and he estimated about 12,000 Jews finally assembled on the border.

The SS guards allowed each person to keep only 10 Reichsmarks.

The guards told them: "You didn't bring more than 10 marks when you came into this country, and you can't take any more out."

The guards marched the Jews about a mile and a half to the border.

"They were whipping us," Grynspan went on. "There was blood on the road."

"It was the first time I ever saw the wild barbarism of the Germans."

Salem Blast Proves Fatal to Workman

SALEM, Ohio (AP)—One man was killed and 14 others injured Monday in an explosion that spread flames through part of the Columbiana Boiler Co. plant in Columbiana, eight miles east of here.

Owen Cook, 61, of Leetonia, a crane operator, died in Salem City Hospital several hours after the blast. He suffered burns on the face, hands and body.

Nine others were admitted to the hospital with burns on the face, hands and parts of their bodies. Many inhaled gas and smoke fumes. Five were treated for minor burns.

Improvements in 31 Ohio Airports Urged by Agency

The Thomas Airport on Route 22 about two miles west of here is one of 31 Ohio airfields the Federal Aviation Agency has recommended for improvements.

Recommendations for the general aviation Thomas Field included acquiring land, widening and extending the existing air strip and construction of an aircraft parking area.

FAA Administrator N. E. Halaby, in a report to Congress Monday, estimated it would cost about $1.1 billion to carry out the agency's recommendation that 465 new airports be built through the nation and 2,834 existing ones be improved, within the next five years.

Such costs in the past have been borne about equally by the federal government and the state or local governments involved.

Halaby emphasized that the recommendations made in the National Airport Plan do not mean that either the local community or the federal government is committed to begin the improvements or take part in financing them.

The plan, he said, merely details "airport needs which should be satisfied during the next five years to keep pace with the growth of aviation."

Needs of some of the other Ohio airports as explained in the National Airport Plan, for fiscal years 1962-66, follow: (Symbols—AC, air carrier airport, one used or proposed for use by scheduled airlines; GA, general aviation airport, one used or proposed for use by other than scheduled airlines).

Portugal Pours Troops Into African Areas

LISBON, Portugal (AP)—Portugal is pouring thousands of troops into its territories on opposite sides of Africa, seeking to curb terrorism in Angola and prevent it from starting in Mozambique.

Between 2,500 and 3,000 troops have been flown to Angola, by unofficial estimate, since Premier Antonio de Oliveira Salazar took personal charge of the Portuguese Defense Ministry 11 days ago.

O'Toole Gets Another Shot At Cubs '9'

CHICAGO (AP) — Jim O'Toole, one of the Cincinnati Reds' bright young pitchers, today was right back in the same situation he faced Opening Day, but there was the chance of some changes.

He was to face the Chicago Cubs again today, and Glen Hobbie was to oppose him on the mound once more.

The 24-year-old Red southpaw threw a four-hitter in the opener and won 7-1.

However, the Reds are in a four-game losing streak in which the hitting—supposed to be the Rhinelanders' strong point — has been poor. They hope to get back on the winning track here.

That brought on the possibility of a drastic lineup shakeup, only hinted at Monday by Manager Fred Hutchinson.

The chief targets: Third sacker Gene Freese, batting .386; outfielder Frank Robinson, currently hitting .184 and outfielder Vada Pinson, .163. Second baseman Jim Baumer, .111, already has served bench time.

It's little consolation to the Reds that the Cubs are also in a hitting slump, with slugger Ernie Banks batting only .222.

O'Toole, son of a Chicago policeman, has pitched effectively but hasn't won since the opener, largely due to the lack of hitting support. Hobbie, meanwhile, blanked Pittsburgh in his last start.

Rain Helps Jersey City

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Rain and the Jersey City Jerseys have become bosom buddies in International League baseball. Twice in the last three games, the rains came just in time to save the Jerseys from defeat at the hands of Toronto's Maple Leafs.

Monday night the Leafs erupted for five runs in the top of the 10th inning. Rain promptly stopped in and washed out the five tallies, leaving the teams tied at 2-2.

Saturday night Toronto held a 4-1 lead in the fourth frame when a rainstorm came to Jersey City's rescue and forced postponement.

Leasures Lead Sunday Bowling

A husband-wife duo copped honors in the latest Sunday Mixed League bowling at Circle D lanes.

Jack Leasure rolled a 210 for high men's single honors, and joined this with 178 and 145 showings for a 533 high series total.

Wanda Leasure topped women's individual scoring with a 185 game, and placed second in three-game totals with a 457. Mary Noble finished on top in series scores with 476.

Close behind Leasure in total men's scoring was Larry Dietrich with 530.

Jack Kaiser is in his sixth season as baseball coach at St. John's University. Home games are played on the Creedmoor State Hospital grounds at Queens Village N. Y.

Johnson Wins, Returns to Rut

Light Heavy Waits For Archie Moore

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Harold Johnson, fresh from a successful defense of his National Boxing Association light heavyweight championship today found himself in the same old rut—waiting for Archie Moore.

Johnson, 174, scored a second-round technical knock-out over Von Clay, 175, a fellow Philadelphia Monday night.

Clay, 21, with a 13-3-2 record before the scheduled 15-rounder, never had a chance. Johnson, 32, veteran of 16 years in the ring, knocked him down once in the first round and three times in the second.

Referee Dave Beloff stopped the uneven match at 2:28 of the second with Clay a badly beaten young man.

Johnson said he knew this first defense of the title he won Feb. 7 with a kayo of Jesse Boudry at Miami Beach, wasn't going to last long.

"He (Clay) is a good puncher but a very slow puncher," said Johnson. "I could see his left jab coming. I knew then all I had to do was let him lead that left and cross with my right and it wouldn't be long."

Beloff stopped the fight in the second after Clay went down for the third time. Under Pennsylvania rules, three knockdowns in one round automatically ends a fight.

Where does Johnson go from here? He has to wait and see whether Moore, who is recognized as light heavy champ in New York, Massachusetts and Europe, can make the weight for a title defense June 10—against Guilio Rinaldi. If Moore doesn't get down to 175—there is doubt he can—Johnson may substitute for him.

Mat Bouts Set For Coliseum

A full evening of wrestling is on tap at the Fairgrounds Coliseum Wednesday, starting at 8:30 p. m.

Kit Fox will tangle with Erich Von Brock in the opening bout, followed by a match between grapplers Johnny Demchuck and "Blackjack" Dillon.

In the card's main attraction, Leon Graham, Kit Fox and Chief White Owl will face a team composed of Fritz Von Goering, Erich Von Brock and El Diablo. The contest will be a best-of-three-falls.

Riley Shows Way In LMP Tourney

The annual Lincoln Molded Plastics bowling tournament entered its fourth week at Prairie Lanes Sunday paced by Jim Riley's 496 showing.

Following Riley were Gene Welch and Jack Stout who dropped 477 and 472 pins respectively in winning their games.

Other victors were Kathleen Good 420, Dorothy Arledge 435, Carron Smith 431, Betty Agin 399, Mack Young 469, Dave Huffer, 454, Paul Leach 402, and Bill Finch 463.

Revised Track Schedule Set For CHS Squad

Circleville High School's track squad, which has had several meets washed out recently, will make another attempt to get back into action tonight, participating in a triangular match with SCO league rivals Pleasant View and Franklin Heights in the latter's home oval.

Tiger mentor Joan Current commented today that "We hope to be able to complete the season in an orderly fashion."

Due to the rainouts, CHS officials have rescheduled several meets. The Tiger thinclads will clash with Lancaster Friday prior to traveling to Washington C. H. May 2 and Chillicothe May 5.

The new date for the South Central Ohio League meet at Greenfield has been set for May 10.

May 12 will mark the Upper Arlington Relays, while the Central District meet is scheduled in Columbus May 19-20.

Cincy Royals' Angel Dies At Age 63

CINCINNATI (AP)—Thomas E. Wood, Cincinnati insurance man who kept professional basketball in Cincinnati during its lean years is dead of a heart attack. Wood, 63, was stricken Monday as he entered a plane in Philadelphia.

Wood was principal stockholder in the Cincinnati Royals of the National Basketball Association and had other sports interests, including thoroughbred horse racing.

Colleagues said the Royals will likely stay in Cincinnati.

Pepper Wilson, team general manager, said Wood was responsible for keeping the Royals in Cincinnati during years of red ink. "His interest was civic rather than financial," Wilson said.

Wood lent his resources to signing the much-sought University of Cincinnati star, Oscar Robertson. With Robertson as a rookie this past season, the team made money for the first time in three years.

Wood was board chairman of the Cincinnati Turf Club which last year tried holding a separate meeting at River Downs after the track's regular season and plans a similar venture this summer.

He headed Cincinnati Gardens, the arena where Royals games have been played, and was president of the Cincinnati Mohawks, a pro hockey team, before the team was disbanded in 1957.

In addition to heading his insurance agency and real estate firm in Cincinnati, Wood owned a horse-breeding farm at Ocala, Fla., a 2,000-acre cattle farm at Mount Sterling and a 1,500-acre cattle farm at St. Martins.

Wood, born in Hilsboro, came to Cincinnati with his family when he was five. After graduating from Miami University and service with the Marines in World War I, Wood entered the insurance business with his father.

Wilt Chamberlain of the Philadelphia Warriors paced National Basketball Association scoring last season with an average of 38.3 points in 79 games.

Battle-Marked Basilio Quits Ring, Plans To Raise Apples

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (AP) —Carmen Basilio, his battlemarked face showing the effects of almost 13 years in the ring, started a new life as a gentleman farmer today.

The craggy-jawed former world welterweight and middleweight champion announced Monday night that he was finished with boxing for good.

"Right now," said the 34-year old Basilio, "I'm going to rest for about a week, think things over and take care of my apple trees."

He started out, as an onior farmer and barely eked out a living before he turned to fighting. Now he has about eight acres of apple trees on his suburban Chit tenango farm.

"I've done a lot of work on it, but there's plenty more to do," he said. "I'm moving slowly and getting help from experts. You might say I know my onions, but I still don't know my apples."

Basilio took a bad beating from Paul Pender last Saturday in Boston. Pender, defending his New York Massachusetts-Europe version of the world middleweight championship, not only won a decisive decision, but had Basilio off his feet for the first time in his career.

While he wouldn't come right out and say so, that undoubtedly helped Basilio — an ex-Marine who always was willing to take two punches to land one — make up his mind.

"I've had a couple of good job offers," Carmen said, "but I don't want to talk about them until I have them."

BR Loop Sets Signup Times

All boys 13 through 15 expecting to play Babe Ruth baseball this summer are required to report to one of the registration sessions today, Wednesday or Thursday at 5:30 p. m. at Ted Lewis Park.

League officials emphasized that these will not be tryout periods. After a boy has presented a birth certificate at one of the registration sessions he will be notified when his tryout time will be.

Any boy who misses the registration or tryout periods will be placed on a minor BR loop team for the 1961 season.

Reed Is Selected As Big Ten Boss

CHICAGO (AP) — Bill Reed, the logical choice, Monday was named commissioner of the Big Ten Athletic Conference, succeeding Kenneth L. (Tug) Wilson.

Given a five-year contract at a salary of $20,000 a year, Reed takes over as head man after having been Wilson's assistant since 1951.

Wilson reached the retirement age of 65 last month and will step down as commissioner July 1. He was granted one year's terminal pay by the Council of Ten which is made up of school presidents.

Phillips Gets Grand Slam To Help Indians

BALTIMORE (AP) — "Hit the ball out of the park, son."

That was the advice Cleveland third base coach Luke Appling whispered to Bubba Phillips in the sixth inning with the bases loaded and one out. The score was 1-1 against Baltimore's Orioles.

Phillips followed the advice perfectly. He whacked one of Milt Pappas' pitches over the wall at the 380-foot marker. The first grand-slam homer in the major leagues for the 31-year-old third baseman provided the Indians with a 5-1 triumph Monday night.

Up to then Jim Perry (2-0) was in a tight duel with Pappas (0-2). The Orioles scored their only run in the first frame on a double by Jackie Brandt and a single by Jim Gentile.

Perry, who needed relief from Frank Funk with the bases loaded and two out in the eighth, gave up seven hits, but was unusually wild. He walked seven and struck out five.

Perry said it was the most men he'd ever passed. "It was hot and muggy," he explained later, "and a change from the cold weather."

Maybe that's why I walked 'em' Phillips, a quiet Mississippian, let his bat do all the talking for him. "I listen, not talk," he says. "That's why you don't get in trouble."

Detroit Chalks 8th Straight, Stays in First

4 Teams Bunched For Leadership in National League

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Detroit Tigers extended their winning streak to eight straight Monday, defeating the New York Yankees 4-3. The triumph enabled the Tigers to retain their first place margin in the American League by half a game over the Minnesota Twins who took a 10-inning, 10-6 decision from Kansas City.

In the only other American League games Cleveland defeated Baltimore 5-1. Rain washed out the scheduled game between Los Angeles and the White Sox in Chicago. Boston and Washington were not scheduled.

Minnesota rallied for three runs in top of the ninth to overcome a 6-3 Kansas City lead furnished by Marv Throneberry's three-run homer in the bottom of the eighth. Catcher Earl Battey's leadoff single ignited the tying rally. Two Athletic errors and Bob Allison's single filled the bases in the tenth against loser Bud Daley and set the stage for Battey's game-winning blow. Ray Moore, in relief, was the winner.

The Tigers extended their winning streak to eight straight as Frank Lary continued his hex over the Yankees. The stocky little right-hander hurled a seven-hitter to lift his lifetime mark against the Yankees to 24 victories and only 8 defeats.

Rookie Steve Boros and first baseman Norm Cash led a 10-hit attack against loser Bob Turley and two relievers. Boros cracked three hits and drove in two runs. Cash put his team in front with a fourth inning home run.

Bubba Phillips hit his first grand slam home run in eight major league seasons to spark the Indians' victory over the Orioles. The blow came in the sixth with the score tied at 1-1. The victim was Milt Pappas, who failed to finish for the second straight time. Jim Perry was the winner although he needed eighth inning help from Frank Funk when the Orioles loaded the bases.

At the start of the season, the National League managers predicted a five-team race with a sixth team, the Cincinnati Reds, having an outside chance. The league standings today make the pilots look like geniuses in the guessing department.

Only one game separates the first four teams after two weeks play. Another game separates the seventh-place Milwaukee Braves from the first-place Los Angeles Dodgers, San Francisco, St. Louis and Pittsburgh, the other three in the top-rated five, are tied for second place.

In the only game played Monday Pittsburgh edged Milwaukee 7-6 to drop the Braves one game out of the cellar. To further illustrate the closeness of the National League race, had the Braves won, they would have bolted into second place.

Bob Friend won his third without a defeat for the Pirates but he needed ninth inning help from Clem Labine. The veteran right-hander allowed only five hits through eight innings and went into the final frame leading 7-4.

Wes Covington's single, an error and a sacrifice produced one Milwaukee run. Friend got John Demerit to fly out but when John Logan singled in a run, Manager Danny Mortaugh summoned Labine from the bullpen. The sinker ball specialist got Roy McMillan on a grounder to end the game.

Seymour Paces Mixed Couples

Gale Seymour topped men's single game scores in the Friday Night Mixed Couples Summer league at Prairie Lanes with a 220, and Jo Ellen Loy took women's singles honors with a 176 score.

Robert Good headed the three-game totals, compiling a 541 on a 196-166-179 series.

The Loy and Thomas squad shared team laurels with the Eaton and Adams outfit, each rolling a 2, 101 total.

Nikki Haughton converted a 5-7 split.

REPLOGLE AWARD — C. F. Replogle, right, holds a special plaque entitling his local firm to membership in the "mile-a-day paving club." Receiving a similar award is V. N. Holderman, left, of the Holderman Paving Co. of Columbus. Presenting the awards is R. E. Heltzel of Warren. The Replogle firm holds the current Ohio record for highway paving completed in one day.

Replogle Firm Earns Plaque, Membership

C. F. Replogle of the C. F. Replogle Construction Co., Circleville, was presented a special plaque for accomplishment Monday night in Columbus.

The engraved plaque entitles the Replogle Co. to membership in the exclusive "mile-a-day concrete paving club." A similar award was presented to the V. N. Holderman Paving Co. of Columbus.

Both firms achieved the unusual record of completing more than one mile of 24-foot concrete pavement in a single working day.

The Replogle Co. holds the current Ohio paving record for building 5,500 lineal feet of 9-inch pavement on the new Cincinnati - Dayton Freeway (Interstate 75) on April 27, 1960. The Holderman award was for completing 5,346 feet of pavement August 12, 1959, on State Route 1, (Interstate 71) in Morrow and Richland counties.

TO DATE, only seven contracting firms in the United States and Canada are known who qualify as mile-a-day pavers. The best known record is held by the Denton Construction Co., of Grosse Pointe Woods, Mich., for placing 8,036 feet of concrete pavement on August 25, 1960, on Interstate 75 near Cheboygan, Mich.

Presentation of the awards was made following a dinner at the Deshler-Hilton Sky Room by R. E. Heltzel, Warren, of the Heltzel Steel Form & Iron Co., manufacturers of paving forms and finishing equipment.

ROCHESTER, N. Y. (AP)—Sophomore Gerald Locklin of Rochester set an academic record recently at St. John Fisher College here. He took nine courses in one semester and got nine A's.

Locklin works at a telephone switchboard five hours a day to help pay for his education, edits the college literary magazine, and plays the leads in school plays. In high school he was a football, basketball and track star.

"I just try to do my best" he says.

LE, Ashville Go To Finals

Scioto, Walnut Lose in Tourney

Logan Elm and Ashville will clash for the County baseball championship Wednesday, weather permitting, following Logan's semi final 7-3 win over Scioto while Ashville was trouncing Walnut's nine, 13-2.

In whipping Scioto, Logan Elm took advantage of six errors by their opposition to tally seven runs on only four hits. Scioto clubbed out eight base knocks, but failed to find the range with men on base.

Hitting for the victors were Gable (1 hit), Griffith (1), and Dean (2). Dean turned in the big Logan blows to drive in all four runs with a double and triple.

Leading hitter for the losers was Hudson, who blasted out three singles.

SPANGLER, Logan's pitcher, struck out nine men while issuing but four walks.

Wilkins, the Scioto hurler, fanned seven men and surrendered 3 free passes.

The win gives Logan a 7-1 won-loss record, while Scioto stands at 2-2.

Ashville, coached by Bob Gregg, clubbed out eight hits in chalking up their 13-run barrage. The big factor in the Bronco's triumph was their ability to hit with men on base, as their stranded only two runners.

Leading the Ashville assault was Brown, who smacked a bases-loaded triple in the third inning to pave the way for a six-run stanza. Brown came back to collect two doubles in the fourth frame to drive in two more runs as Ashville mounted to a 9-2 lead. They were never headed.

Also collecting base blows for the winners were Flierl (1 hit), Hollenback (2), Gregg (1), Roof (2) and B. Kuhlwein (1).

CONNECTING for the losers were Hoover (2 hits including a double), White (1), Cremeans (1), and Harber (a triple).

Ashville's pitcher was Rathburn, who struck out eight men and walked four, while Harber struck out one and walked five for Walnut.

McCray, the other Walnut hurler, walked a pair of batters.

Quite a Plug

WEBB CITY, Mo. (AP)—The street commissioner finally discovered what caused the city's sewers to back up recently.

A state highway department workmen bored test holes in a concrete slab of a highway in the city — and bored right into sewers laid underneath.

Then he filled the holes with asphalt, filling the sewer lines at the same time.

This Is What District Vets Want To Know

At the present time, about two out of every five contracts in the VA office have to do with GI Insurance. The two most asked questions are: Is it possible for me to pick up the GI Insurance that I dropped some years ago, and, it is true that dividends are going to be paid early this year?

In the last session of Congress, Senator Long presented a proposal to reopen, for one year, the opportunity for World War II veterans to obtain contract NSLI on a died in the House Rules Committee.

Senator Long, for himself and 31 other Senators, has introduced a new bill (SB 977) in this Congress that would reopen the opportunity for a period of two years. He has added the additional year on the premise that one year would not be sufficient time in which to alert veterans to the opportunity. In the House a number of similar bills have also been introduced and Chairman Teague of the House Veterans Affairs Committee has stated that he would hold hearings on insurance matters. The strongest lobby against the legislation stems from the private insurance areas. The bill is backed strongly by all veterans' organizations.

Regarding the insurance dividends, all veterans holding government insurance will not receive dividends. As in the past, you will receive a dividend if the letter V or K precedes the number of your GI Insurance policy. If the letters RS, W or RH precede the policy number, you will not receive a dividend.

Dividend checks are being paid well in advance of schedule and the VA expects to have all checks in the mail some time this month. The VA requests that we do not write them regarding the dividend check, as it will only slow up the time you will receive it.

Weekend Flower Show To Be Held

"Perfumes of Spring" will be the theme of the 11th annual Nor-West flower show, to be held in Barrington Elementary School, Upper Arlington, Saturday and Sunday.

The exhibits of artistic floral arrangements, house plants and table designs highlighting spring blossoms will be on display from 3 to 9 p. m. Saturday and noon to 7 p. m. Sunday.

The show, which has no admission charge, is considered one of the finest in the Midwest, and has been awarded several district and state garden club trophies. Fourteen flower groups will participate in this year's exhibition.

Look to the Future

NEW YORK (AP)—Want a peek at the world of tomorrow? Steelways, magazine of the American Iron and Steel Institute, suggests you will see:

Shopping centers with automatic monorail service for the convenience of customers. Portable solar grills where steaks can be charcoaled without charcoal. All-steel cantilever homes with swimming pool and heliport on the roof.

The magazine says these are some of the ideas that have come from industrial designers, who are being urged by the steel industry to follow design principles which take advantage of steel's range of characteristics. It's part of a program to sell more steel by spreading knowledge of the metal among industrial designers.
